10. For any photographs showing faces of people, the photographer is responsible for obtaining permission from the subject to display their image.
11. Acceptance of the photos for this positive community event will be determined by E.L. Rose Conservancy. Photographs promoting politics, violence, derogatory or self-serving agendas will not be accepted.
12. All photos submitted and accepted will be posted on the E.L. Rose Conservancy Photo Contest web pages (links found at www.elrose.org).
13. When sending in an email with a photo attachment, if you encounter an error, such as 'Mailbox Full', please try again later. We will be checking the inbox regularly.
14. If you are submitting a number of photographs, send them over a few days rather than all on one day.
15. If you continue to have a problem, please send an email describing the problem and we'll try to help.
16. Note: E.L. Rose is an volunteer organization and posting the photographs may take a couple days. Please check back at the web site galleries and see the range of images that come together.
